

Why should my organisation host a talk from the Sanctuary Speakers?

By hosting a talk from the Sanctuary Speakers you will:

Learn more about the reality of life as a sanctuary seeker.

Discover what City of Sanctuary is, and how your organisation can get involved.

Work towards meeting your equality remit.

Who We Are

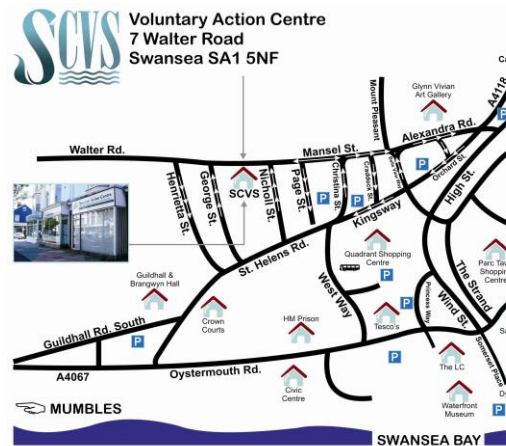

About Us

The Sanctuary Speakers started in 2015 and is part of the City of Sanctuary movement. The staff are employed by Displaced People in Action.

We welcome and support sanctuary seekers to increase knowledge and understanding of the issues faced by people seeking sanctuary.

Do you want to know more about what it means to seek sanctuary?

Invite Sanctuary Speakers to your organisation, community group or workplace.

Who are the Sanctuary Speakers?

The Sanctuary Speakers are a team of individual volunteers. Many of the Sanctuary Speakers are seeking asylum or have been granted refugee status and have chosen to share their personal experiences with you.

What do Sanctuary Speakers do?

The Sanctuary Speakers are often people who have sought sanctuary, or are in the process of doing so. They will share their experiences in order to challenge common misconceptions about the asylum process. Speakers will increase knowledge and understanding of the issues faced by people seeking sanctuary.

Is there a cost?

No! Talks from the Sanctuary Speakers are completely free.

“One of the most sincere forms of respect is actually listening to what another has to say.”

Bruant H. McNeill

Can talks be tailored to suit my organisation's needs and interests?

The Sanctuary Speakers are all have different experiences. If there is a particular issue (e.g. destitution, detention) you would like covered in your talk, please mention this when booking.

How do I request a talk from the Sanctuary Seekers Speakers Team?

To arrange a talk from the Sanctuary Speakers Team, please contact Eleri Williams. Full details are overleaf.
